

Woodward & Lothrop

New York—WASHINGTON—Paris

Here Are Some Facts Regarding the

SEPTEMBER RUG SALE

That Every One Will Appreciate When Buying.

We have plentiful stocks to show you in good, worthy Rugs that will render service of a satisfactory nature.

All the Rugs in this September Sale have received our unqualified approval just as all Rugs in our regular stocks.

Great assortments were specially bought for this September Sale from our chosen makers, at deep price concessions.

To these new purchases, some of which we have just received in the past few days, many Rugs that have been in our regular stock were added.

You can choose now as well as you could on the first day of the sale, so large are our selections.

The present prices are a genuine saving in every instance. You can compare them intelligently by our valuations.

Patterns and colorings have been expressly chosen for us, with a view to meeting the most exacting demands. There is a Rug here for every room, and to accompany any furnishing idea.

The Popular 9x12 Size Is Prominently Brought to Your Attention Today. Other Sizes Are Available at Proportionate Reductions in Price.

Seamless Beauvais Axminster Rugs, regularly $30.00.....$24.50
Sewal Axminster Rugs, regularly $25.00.....$19.75
Seamless Velvet Rugs, regularly $30.00.....$25.00
Royal Wilton Rugs, regularly $40.00.....$32.50
Seamless French Wilton Rugs, regularly $50.00.....$40.00
Tapestry Brussels Rugs, regularly $17.50.....$15.00
Body Brussels Rugs, regularly $32.50.....$27.50

Scotch Art Rugs, Just Received, Size 9x12 Feet.

New; plain centers mostly, but some figured effects; very dainty and practical colorings, highly desirable for bedrooms.

Meltose, regularly $16.50.....$13.50
Tyron, regularly $10.50.....$8.75
Burma, regularly $16.50.....$13.50

Unusual Values in Fine Linoleums.

A wide variety of patterns is offered. They are the best grade Cork Linoleums, printed and inlaid. Marked greatly below prevailing prices because of our large purchases.

Shown in Our Enlarged Floor Covering Department, Sixth Floor, F Street.

Use the three commodious elevators in New F street building opening directly into the department.

AGAIN IN TOILS OF LAW.

Four New "Bad Check" Charges Made Against E. H. Becerra.

Arrested several weeks ago on four charges of obtaining money under false pretenses, and released when a foreign diplomat made good the amounts he obtained, Emanuel H. Becerra, said to be the son of a former Colombian minister, again fell into the toils of the law yesterday.

The complainants of the new charges are Fred Geer, 1377 Fourteenth street northwest; George Strauss, a haberdasher, 622 Pennsylvania avenue northwest; James Phillips, Sixth and D streets northwest; and J. S. Goch, night desk man at the Postal Telegraph Company office, where one time was employed on a local newspaper as a reporter.

In France the government reimburses fixed percentage of the amount expended by the labor unions for the support of the unemployed.

ST. PATRICK'S OPENS.

Academy Starts Fall Term with 300 Students Enrolled.

With appropriate ceremonies, St. Patrick's Academy opened its school year yesterday. High mass was celebrated by Rev. John M. McNamara, and Mr. Russell explained in a sermon that Catholic education aimed to better the child mentally, physically, and spiritually.

About 300 students were enrolled yesterday, entering the primary and grammar grades courses and the business high school. Rev. T. E. McGuigan is in charge of the school, assisted by Sisters of the Holy Cross, who are in turn assisted by lay teachers. The school will remain open until next June.

In France the government reimburses fixed percentage of the amount expended by the labor unions for the support of the unemployed.

In France the government reimburses fixed percentage of the amount expended by the labor unions for the support of the unemployed.

In France the government reimburses fixed percentage of the amount expended by the labor unions for the support of the unemployed.

In France the government reimburses fixed percentage of the amount expended by the labor unions for the support of the unemployed.

In France the government reimburses fixed percentage of the amount expended by the labor unions for the support of the unemployed.

In France the government reimburses fixed percentage of the amount expended by the labor unions for the support of the unemployed.

In France the government reimburses fixed percentage of the amount expended by the labor unions for the support of the unemployed.

In France the government reimburses fixed percentage of the amount expended by the labor unions for the support of the unemployed.

In France the government reimburses fixed percentage of the amount expended by the labor unions for the support of the unemployed.

In France the government reimburses fixed percentage of the amount expended by the labor unions for the support of the unemployed.

In France the government reimburses fixed percentage of the amount expended by the labor unions for the support of the unemployed.

In France the government reimburses fixed percentage of the amount expended by the labor unions for the support of the unemployed.

In France the government reimburses fixed percentage of the amount expended by the labor unions for the support of the unemployed.

In France the government reimburses fixed percentage of the amount expended by the labor unions for the support of the unemployed.

In France the government reimburses fixed percentage of the amount expended by the labor unions for the support of the unemployed.

In France the government reimburses fixed percentage of the amount expended by the labor unions for the support of the unemployed.

In France the government reimburses fixed percentage of the amount expended by the labor unions for the support of the unemployed.

In France the government reimburses fixed percentage of the amount expended by the labor unions for the support of the unemployed.

In France the government reimburses fixed percentage of the amount expended by the labor unions for the support of the unemployed.

In France the government reimburses fixed percentage of the amount expended by the labor unions for the support of the unemployed.

In France the government reimburses fixed percentage of the amount expended by the labor unions for the support of the unemployed.

In France the government reimburses fixed percentage of the amount expended by the labor unions for the support of the unemployed.

In France the government reimburses fixed percentage of the amount expended by the labor unions for the support of the unemployed.

In France the government reimburses fixed percentage of the amount expended by the labor unions for the support of the unemployed.

In France the government reimburses fixed percentage of the amount expended by the labor unions for the support of the unemployed.

In France the government reimburses fixed percentage of the amount expended by the labor unions for the support of the unemployed.

In France the government reimburses fixed percentage of the amount expended by the labor unions for the support of the unemployed.

In France the government reimburses fixed percentage of the amount expended by the labor unions for the support of the unemployed.

In France the government reimburses fixed percentage of the amount expended by the labor unions for the support of the unemployed.

In France the government reimburses fixed percentage of the amount expended by the labor unions for the support of the unemployed.

In France the government reimburses fixed percentage of the amount expended by the labor unions for the support of the unemployed.

In France the government reimburses fixed percentage of the amount expended by the labor unions for the support of the unemployed.

In France the government reimburses fixed percentage of the amount expended by the labor unions for the support of the unemployed.

In France the government reimburses fixed percentage of the amount expended by the labor unions for the support of the unemployed.

In France the government reimburses fixed percentage of the amount expended by the labor unions for the support of the unemployed.

In France the government reimburses fixed percentage of the amount expended by the labor unions for the support of the unemployed.

In France the government reimburses fixed percentage of the amount expended by the labor unions for the support of the unemployed.

In France the government reimburses fixed percentage of the amount expended by the labor unions for the support of the unemployed.

HOUSE PASSES NEW ALLEY BILL

Will Have to Be Readopted by Senate Because of Slight Change.

IS LONG STEP FORWARD

But Citizens Backing Measure Hope Upper Body Will Add Several Desirable Sections to It.

The House yesterday adopted without the formality of a roll call the bill passed by the Senate to eliminate the alley slums of Washington.

Although, with one unimportant exception, the bill is identical with the Senate bill, it was reported by the District Committee under a House title, as a substitute for a bill previously introduced in the House. Because of this, the bill will have to be re-passed in the Senate before it can go either to the White House or to a conference between the two Houses, according to parliamentary in the House.

Not Entirely Satisfactory.

This action was taken in the hope that the Senate Committee would report it and that the Senate would pass it with amendments which, it was feared, would be rejected in the House during consideration of the measure, but which it is hoped, the House will agree to as a part of a conference report. As passed by the House and Senate, the measure is not as originally advocated by the civic federation backing the measure, but it was accepted by them as a long step in the right direction.

It is hoped that in re-passing the measure, the Senate will incorporate several much desired sections of the original alley measure.

As adopted the bill requires that all alleys built on for residential purposes must have a breadth of thirty feet for vehicle traffic and five feet between the building line and the alley proper for foot traffic, and must be equipped with all civic improvements such as gas and electric light, sewers and water mains, and must open on two of the streets bordering the square.

Old Homes to Be Condemned.

Houses on alleys which do not comply with these requirements shall be condemned by the city if damaged more than one-half their value, by the enactment of the proposed law. The occupation of buildings which fail to comply with the requirements at the time of the bill's enactment is declared illegal and forbidden after July 1, 1915.

A fine of not more than $10 nor less than $100 is imposed upon the owner, agent or responsible employee renting alleys in violation of the law for every day of the violation.

FOR NERVE, HE'S THERE.

Released as Beggar, He Commandeers Touring Car.

Detroit, Mich., Sept. 14.—William Wood, fifty-two years old, has no money, no home and few clothes. His total assets are an unlimited quantity of nerve. He was arrested for passing a check for $100,000, and it took six men to land him in a cell after being taken to police headquarters. He gave the police in the "bull pen" of the Police Court another argument Friday morning and had to be carried from there to the city physician's office, where a cut in his head was dressed. Justice Gandy released him and he left the Police Court.

Seeing a large touring car standing at the curb, he climbed aboard, sank deep in the luxurious cushions and was soon asleep. Three more policemen were required to cut him, and it took five to put him in the patrol wagon. He is now back in headquarters again.

B. F. KEITH'S.

Amelia Bingham.

Amelia Bingham, in a series of characterizations from great plays, is the headliner in electric capital letters at B. F. Keith's Theater this week.

Miss Bingham, supported by an able company, gave a scene from "The Merchant of Venice" in which she played the strongly emotional and spiritual French peasant girl with an infinite understanding of the part and a superb finish. "Madame Sans-Gene" was equally well played by the famous actress. She was supported by Miss Lyle Leigh, Miss Will Well, Mr. Bell and Mr. Lloyd Bingham and a chorus of gossamer girls.

"Curse You, Jack Dalton" is a combination of legitimate vaudeville and movie and is the big laugh on the program this week. Jack Dalton, a laughing lion of the screen, plays the part of a man who is a laughing lion of the screen, and also speaks for every silent actor in the cast. He is a busy actor for seventeen minutes and a laughing lion for the rest of the show.

Lydia Barry, in a series of song studies, wears some lovely clothes and sings some good and catchy new songs. She received several ovations for her opening performance on "Who Let Father Out" and "Mrs. Cupid."

Her repertoire consists of eight other good comedy-character songs. Jack G. McLaughlin and May Carson do some thrilling stunts on roller skates and dance new steps in a new and entertaining way. Harry J. Jester, "The Jovial Jester," entertains with song and monologue. Cecil Weston and Louise Leon, in original songs and music, have won for themselves the title of "The Personality Girls." The Hearst-Selig Pictorial News is up to the standard.

STAND THEATER.

A double bill of exclusive photographic features attracted capacity audiences to Moore's Strand Theater, the attractions being the latest million dollar production "The Lamb of All-Star Gambol" and "The Lightning Conductor." The pictureization of the Lamb Gambol proved to be exceptionally interesting, showing the various incidents of the rehearsal, the complete show, the parade headed by Sousa's band and all the important and humorous events while the company was en route, as well as the actual scenes of the gambol. The pictureization of "The Lightning Conductor" is a beautiful and picturesque picture of England, France, and Germany make up the background. This is the first camera production of William Elliott in association with his father-in-law, Daniel Belasco, and the double bill will hold the Week's Amusements.

NATIONAL.

"John Bunny in Funland."

John Bunny and his merrie lady and ladies romped "In Funland" with a large audience, that roared with laughter at the jokes and approved all the songs at the National Theater last evening.

Both laughter and enthusiasm were well deserved for the entertainment is a pleasing and agreeable one from the first part, in which the clever girls and boys sang and danced and told jokes, to the grand finale march song number with military evolutions by pretty Marie Stone and the entire company.

Ben Linn, a tall and funny, just like Bunty, was the interpreter for the juvenile minstrels, several of whom sang merrily, notably, Master and Miss Nelson, Lee Coyne and Jess Spitzer, the latter of whom made the melody and pathos of "Silver Threads Among the Gold" particularly effective. Florence Mascot was a pulchritudinous rendition of "I'll Do It All Over Again," and Eddie Lambert, Babe Smith, and Lillian Marguire also helped along the merriment.

Willy Zimmerman, the noted minstrel, presented artistic and faithful impersonations (in costume) of famous composers and the rulers of the world, and a number of other notable features of the program.

The feature of the evening to Bunty, only one size smaller, and as a comedian, John himself. Winsor McCay, the noted cartoonist, is responsible for "Gertie," and she dances, poses, twirls, and does in moving pictures, although she is not quite as beautiful.

Lovers of John Bunty, of minstrelsy, and good vaudeville will find much to please "In Funland," which is designed to banish care and destroy the glooms.

POLIS.

"The Rose of the Rancho."

The Rose of the Rancho, a drama by David Belasco and Richard Walton Tully, was the vehicle which introduced to the stage the new and novel idea of a woman in the person of Miss Jane Morgan, who is to be congratulated on having made an instantaneous hit with her audience. Upon her first entrance this may have been due to a most engaging personality, for Miss Morgan is favored by nature with an abundance of good looks. As the play progressed, however, it was discovered that the latest acquisition at Polis's also is gifted with dramatic talent of no mean order. She was a perfect picture of a woman, just the right proportions of bewitching grace and coquetry, and, on the other hand, the fiery temper of a Mexican maiden.

Who, however, for the most part, was a perfect picture of a woman, just the right proportions of bewitching grace and coquetry, and, on the other hand, the fiery temper of a Mexican maiden.

To these varying charms and moods Miss Morgan gave the subtlest and most convincing expression, with the result that the pleasure of the audience found its climax at the close of the second act, when the actress, after a brief intermission, was presented with a floral gift, the acceptance of which was accompanied by a plea for the continuing favor of the audience.

Mr. Carl Brickert was not at his best in the part of Robert Kearney. It sat upon him as stiffly as his clothes, and a long intermission later, he seemed to be a different man.

It would be hard to imagine, William D. Corbett was excellent as Padre Antonio, and Russell Fillmore gave a satisfactory rendering of the part of Don Luis de la Torre, a Mexican Hidalgo.

Stanley James was good, as usual, in the role of Kincaid, a land jumper, and the same can be said of Miss Louise Kent as Senora Kenton.

B. F. KEITH'S.

Amelia Bingham.

Amelia Bingham, in a series of characterizations from great plays, is the headliner in electric capital letters at B. F. Keith's Theater this week.

Miss Bingham, supported by an able company, gave a scene from "The Merchant of Venice" in which she played the strongly emotional and spiritual French peasant girl with an infinite understanding of the part and a superb finish. "Madame Sans-Gene" was equally well played by the famous actress. She was supported by Miss Lyle Leigh, Miss Will Well, Mr. Bell and Mr. Lloyd Bingham and a chorus of gossamer girls.

"Curse You, Jack Dalton" is a combination of legitimate vaudeville and movie and is the big laugh on the program this week. Jack Dalton, a laughing lion of the screen, plays the part of a man who is a laughing lion of the screen, and also speaks for every silent actor in the cast. He is a busy actor for seventeen minutes and a laughing lion for the rest of the show.

Lydia Barry, in a series of song studies, wears some lovely clothes and sings some good and catchy new songs. She received several ovations for her opening performance on "Who Let Father Out" and "Mrs. Cupid."

Her repertoire consists of eight other good comedy-character songs. Jack G. McLaughlin and May Carson do some thrilling stunts on roller skates and dance new steps in a new and entertaining way. Harry J. Jester, "The Jovial Jester," entertains with song and monologue. Cecil Weston and Louise Leon, in original songs and music, have won for themselves the title of "The Personality Girls." The Hearst-Selig Pictorial News is up to the standard.

STAND THEATER.

A double bill of exclusive photographic features attracted capacity audiences to Moore's Strand Theater, the attractions being the latest million dollar production "The Lamb of All-Star Gambol" and "The Lightning Conductor." The pictureization of the Lamb Gambol proved to be exceptionally interesting, showing the various incidents of the rehearsal, the complete show, the parade headed by Sousa's band and all the important and humorous events while the company was en route, as well as the actual scenes of the gambol. The pictureization of "The Lightning Conductor" is a beautiful and picturesque picture of England, France, and Germany make up the background. This is the first camera production of William Elliott in association with his father-in-law, Daniel Belasco, and the double bill will hold the

WILEY HAS PLAN TO AID REVENUES

Pure Food Expert Would Tax "Secret Remedies" to the Very Limit.

HARM HEALTH, HE SAYS

Writes to Underwood and Makes Suggestions Which, He Says, Would Benefit Public.

"Secret remedies" sought by people of the country for "self-medication" would be taxed to the very limit if Dr. Harvey W. Wiley, of pure food fame, had his way. This is plain from a recent letter from him to Representative Oscar C. Underwood, Democratic leader of the House, containing several suggestions as to how taxes might be laid that would suffice to make up for the deficit in customs resulting from the war and at the same time benefit the people materially.

A very considerable sum could be raised by a tax on secret remedies sold at enormous prices, considering the character of their contents, to the people of this country for self-medication," says the food expert. "This very extensive self-medication is a threat to the health and welfare of the people of the whole country."

Here are a few more of the doctor's pointers:

"It would be a great blessing to this country, as well as a substantial increase of revenue if you should lay a tax of 50 or 60 per cent additional per gallon on rectified spirits used for beverage purposes. This would include all cordials and all similar preparations made on the premises of rectifiers."

A tax should be laid on all so-called soft drinks, or beverages which contain any added alkali of any kind. There is one alkali extensively used in soft drinks to the great detriment of the people, namely, caffeine. Caffeine is the alkali found in tea and coffee, but in these it is combined, as a rule, with other bodies which render it less harmful. The caffeine used in soft drinks is an artificial product, made largely from the sweepings of tea factories."

Bleaching Agent Poisonous.

I earnestly recommend favorable consideration of laying a tax on bleaching flour, made by a considerable number of mills in this country by the use of a bleaching agent of a highly poisonous character, which causes in many instances the value of flour for nutritive purposes."

I heartily approve of the proposed increased tax upon certain alcoholic beverages and especially fortified wines, which, in my opinion, are a menace to the health of the people. I should like to see such wines taxed at the full rate of alcohol, which is present in distilled spirits."

ALLEY IMPROVEMENT BILL IS PROTESTED

Mid-city Citizens' Association Also Takes Stand Against the Board Amendment.

Protest was made against the alley improvement bill and against the Board amendment by which taxpayers must bear half the expense of paving streets at a meeting last night of the Mid-city Citizens' Association. It was decided to refer both questions to the Federation of Citizens' Association, with request for co-operation.

A. J. Driscoll, president, introduced the resolution which asked the repeal of the Board amendment. He said it is an imposition "an attack on the organic act."

Charles Shreve, in introducing a resolution which charged that the Senate alley bill would "take away private property for the public good without just compensation," asked that the public pay the structural value of the property. The whole public would benefit, Mr. Shreve said, and the owners of alley property would lose financially without being in any way benefited.

It was decided to renew this fall the agitation to pave Seventh street north-west from New York avenue to Florida avenue.

FRENCH SOLDIER WRITES

GERMANS ARE PILLAGING

Bordeaux, Sept. 14.—Le Temps tonight publishes a communication from a French trooper who took part in the battle of the Marne, in which he says: "We are advancing with a stifling stench of corpses. The Germans are pillaging and devastating everywhere as they retreat."

PIMPLES BOILS CARBUNCLES

ACHES CHILLS PAINS

Are "Danger Signals"—the human system's method of giving warning that the blood has become impoverished and circulation poor. In this condition the human body is almost powerless to resist the more serious illness. Don't delay. You need

DR. PIERCE'S Golden Medical Discovery

It gets to work immediately at the seat of your trouble—the Stomach. It lends a helping hand. Helps to digest the food. Tones up the stomach. Soon brings back normal conditions. Food is properly assimilated and turned into rich, red blood. Every organ is strengthened and every tissue re-vitalized.

Made from roots taken from our great American forests. Try this remedy now. Sold by Medicine Dealers in liquid or tablet form—or send 50c to Dr. Pierce's Invalid Hotel, Buffalo, N. Y., for trial box.

You can have the complete "Medical Adviser" of 1000 pages—cloth bound—free by sending Dr. Pierce 50c for wrapping and mailing.

A few changes in the personnel of the field workers of the campaign, the day, Miss Helen Todd, of Illinois, will go to Portland, Ore., with Mrs. Jesse Hardy Stubbs, in place of Miss Jane Finner. Miss Finner will join Mrs. Mabel Vernon in Arizona. Miss Virginia Arnold, of North Carolina, will be assigned to duty in one of the States.

Mrs. Alice Burke, of the Woman Suffrage Party, of New York City, has come here to assume charge of the outdoor suffrage meetings for the next two weeks.

DISCHARGED FROM BANKRUPTCY

New York, Sept. 14.—Mrs. Evelyn Thaw, wife of Harry K. Thaw, today was discharged in bankruptcy in the United States District Court. No creditors objected. She filed a petition in August, 1913, showing $5,544 liabilities, and a schedule of assets.

The hearings took place about the time Harry Thaw escaped from Matteawan.

STRANDED STEAMER FLOATED.

Atlantic City, Sept. 14.—The steamer Atlantic City, which went ashore off here yesterday, was floated at high tide today. All of the passengers were taken off by life guards.

WILEY HAS PLAN TO AID REVENUES

Pure Food Expert Would Tax "Secret Remedies" to the Very Limit.

HARM HEALTH, HE SAYS

Writes to Underwood and Makes Suggestions Which, He Says, Would Benefit Public.

"Secret remedies" sought by people of the country for "self-medication" would be taxed to the very limit if Dr. Harvey W. Wiley, of pure food fame, had his way. This is plain from a recent letter from him to Representative Oscar C. Underwood, Democratic leader of the House, containing several suggestions as to how taxes might be laid that would suffice to make up for the deficit in customs resulting from the war and at the same time benefit the people materially.

A very considerable sum could be raised by a tax on secret remedies sold at enormous prices, considering the character of their contents, to the people of this country for self-medication," says the food expert. "This very extensive self-medication is a threat to the health and welfare of the people of the whole country."

Here are a few more of the doctor's pointers:

"It would be a great blessing to this country, as well as a substantial increase of revenue if you should lay a tax of 50 or 60 per cent additional per gallon on rectified spirits used for beverage purposes. This would include all cordials and all similar preparations made on the premises of rectifiers."

A tax should be laid on all so-called soft drinks, or beverages which contain any added alkali of any kind. There is one alkali extensively used in soft drinks to the great detriment of the people, namely, caffeine. Caffeine is the alkali found in tea and coffee, but in these it is combined, as a rule, with other bodies which render it less harmful. The caffeine used in soft drinks is an artificial product, made largely from the sweepings of tea factories."

Bleaching Agent Poisonous.

I earnestly recommend favorable consideration of laying a tax on bleaching flour, made by a considerable number of mills in this country by the use of a bleaching agent of a highly poisonous character, which causes in many instances the value of flour for nutritive purposes."

I heartily approve of the proposed increased tax upon certain alcoholic beverages and especially fortified wines, which, in my opinion, are a menace to the health of the people. I should like to see such wines taxed at the full rate of alcohol, which is present in distilled spirits."

ALLEY IMPROVEMENT BILL IS PROTESTED

Mid-city Citizens' Association Also Takes Stand Against the Board Amendment.

Protest was made against the alley improvement bill and against the Board amendment by which taxpayers must bear half the expense of paving streets at a meeting last night of the Mid-city Citizens' Association. It was decided to refer both questions to the Federation of Citizens' Association, with request for co-operation.

A. J. Driscoll, president, introduced the resolution which asked the repeal of the Board amendment. He said it is an imposition "an attack on the organic act."

Charles Shreve, in introducing a resolution which charged that the Senate alley bill would "take away private property for the public good without just compensation," asked that the public pay the structural value of the property. The whole public would benefit, Mr. Shreve said, and the owners of alley property would lose financially without being in any way benefited.

It was decided to renew this fall the agitation to pave Seventh street north-west from New York avenue to Florida avenue.

FRENCH SOLDIER WRITES

GERMANS ARE PILLAGING

Bordeaux, Sept. 14.—Le Temps tonight publishes a communication from a French trooper who took part in the battle of the Marne, in which he says: "We are advancing with a stifling stench of corpses. The Germans are pillaging and devastating everywhere as they retreat."

PIMPLES BOILS CARBUNCLES

ACHES CHILLS PAINS

Are "Danger Signals"—the human system's method of giving warning that the blood has become impoverished and circulation poor. In this condition the human body is almost powerless to resist the more serious illness. Don't delay. You need

DR. PIERCE'S Golden Medical Discovery

It gets to work immediately at the seat of your trouble—the Stomach. It lends a helping hand. Helps to digest the food. Tones up the stomach. Soon brings back normal conditions. Food is properly assimilated and turned into rich, red blood. Every organ is strengthened and every tissue re-vitalized.

Made from roots taken from our great American forests. Try this remedy now. Sold by Medicine Dealers in liquid or tablet form—or send 50c to Dr. Pierce's Invalid Hotel, Buffalo, N. Y., for trial box.

You can have the complete "Medical Adviser" of 1000 pages—cloth bound—free by sending Dr. Pierce 50c for wrapping and mailing.

Housefurnishings --OF SUPERIOR QUALITY

THE well informed housewife considers QUALITY when buying Kitchen Wares, the same as when buying China, Glass, or Silver.

For years this store has been the housefurnishings headquarters for those demanding THE BEST.

Our stocks are most complete and will be found entirely free from goods of inferior or indifferent quality. Unsurpassed assortments in all of the following lines:

Decorated China. Imported Molds and Cutters. Bathroom Fixtures. Best Anti-rust Tinware. Russian Iron and Steel Roasting Pans. Furnace and Stove Accessories. Labor-saving Devices for cooking, house-cleaning, etc.

Glassware of every description. Agate Nickel-steel Utensils. Blue Enamelled Utensils. All-white Enamelled Utensils. Copper Kitchen